6. [REDACTED] LIAISON Accompanied [REDACTED] NFAC/ORPA, to a briefing on the current situation in Panama for Representative William L. Dickinson (R., Ala.) The Congressman recently visited Panama in connection with his responsibilities on the House Armed Services Committee and was interested in our evaluation of the internal and external threat to Panama. This was a follow up briefing to a short telephone conversation between [REDACTED] and the Congressman last Friday afternoon.

7. [REDACTED] LIAISON Met with David Keane and George W. Ashworth, staffers on the Senate Committee on Foreign Relations, and informed them that a facility in the Soviet Union, which they were interested in, was no longer considered a possible BW site. Later I called Mr. Ashworth to let him know that [REDACTED]

[REDACTED] was indeed going to be a resident scholar at the Agency for some time. I said I saw no reason, however, why he could not submit an essay to the Committee on Soviet/U.S. relationships. Arrangements were made for [REDACTED] to call Mr. Ashworth directly to make any final arrangements.

12. [REDACTED] LEGISLATION Ed Kneedler, Department of Justice, called to discuss the language in the intelligence authorization bill concerning incorporation of annexes. He was interested in the intent of the committees in inserting the language, whether there was any ambiguity in the language as these factors relate to possible veto. I reviewed the reasons against vetoing, including the ramifications on the Hill, with which Kneedler agreed.
